PEARL HARBOR SEEN BY GUESTS

Penri Harbor was the scene of couple of very pleasant parties yesterday. The morning train carried to the Mr. P. N. Litienthal and the members of his immediate party. They were the guests of Mr. Clarence W. Macfarlane, and soon after their arrival they were taken through the lochs in his launch. The growing cane was inspected upon Ford's Island and the peninsula as well, and the party after long ride returned to the Macfarlane residence and partook of luncheon.

At the same time there was touring the harbor a company consisting of Mr. Hendy of San Francisco and his party, the host being Captain Merry, of urday evening, many whites and nathe naval station, who took them down tives being in the audience. in his launch. The visitors made a special inspection of the site for the Import Company, leaves on the Sonoma of the entire harbor.

All the guests expressed themselves seen, and to all there was a revelation
